

It's Halloween!

Aux États-Unis, le 31 octobre, c'est Halloween. Le soir, les enfants se déguisent et demandent à leurs voisins : "farce ou friandise". S'ils ne reçoivent pas de bonbons, ils jouent un tour!

"Trick or treat!"

On 31 October, children in the USA visit their neighbours* and ask* for sweets*. They say "trick* or treat"!

neighbours: voisins
ask for: demandent
sweets: bonbons
trick or treat: farce ou friandise

Trick* or treat!

Mmm! Sweets*!

The origin of Halloween

Halloween is an old* Celtic holiday. The dead* visited the living*. People* wore* costumes to scare* the dead.

old: vieux
dead: les morts
living: les vivants
people: les gens
wore: portaient scare: faire peur à

Halloween costumes

Children wear* costumes for Halloween: witches*, monsters, ghosts* ...

wear: portent
witches: sorcières
ghosts: fantômes

It's Halloween!

Halloween, farce ou friandise?! Déguise-toi en sorcière ou en monstre, en squelette ou en fantôme et chante cette chanson sur Halloween.

Halloween! Halloween!
Trick or treat
Let's play a joke
Let's eat some sweets!

I'm a witch
Look at my hat
It's long and black
Just like my cat

I'm a monster
Look, I'm scary
I'm big and green
And very hairy!

Halloween! Halloween!
Trick or treat
Let's play a joke
Let's eat some sweets!

I'm a skeleton
Look at my bones
They're big and white
My name's Mr Jones

I'm a ghost
Look! Can you see?
I'm invisible
You can't see me!

Halloween! Halloween!
Trick or treat
Let's play a joke
Let's eat some sweets!

